

Strikes

Running crew and cast members are required to attend all strikes. Additionally, students assigned to the work weekend for a production are also required to attend the strike for that production, unless otherwise notified. Strike is normally held immediately following the final performance (See “Dates & Deadlines” page 4-7). The technical director supervises strike and determines the work that needs to be accomplished.