

TRANSFER STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS

NDSU is pleased to recognize transfer students who have demonstrated high academic achievement at the collegiate level. Although the scholarship selection process is quite competitive, all interested students are encouraged to complete the Transfer Scholarship Application or contact the appropriate department for consideration.

TRANSFER SCHOLARSHIP ELIGIBILITY

Students transferring to NDSU for the first time will be considered for a transfer scholarship if any of the following criteria are met:

- High school graduates who have earned academic credit at a previous institution
- Students who are in their first term at another institution (College GPA must be verifiable by a transcript no later than January 15, 2009, for students entering Spring Semester)
- Students must have 12 transferable, graded credits

If you do not meet the above criteria, please see Freshman Scholarship Eligibility on page 2. Transfer students are encouraged to apply for NDSU scholarships if they have a cumulative GPA of 3.5 from each institution previously attended. Please note that minimum qualifications do not automatically qualify students for scholarships as the applicant pool varies each year.

HOW TO APPLY FOR TRANSFER SCHOLARSHIPS

Complete and submit the NDSU Transfer Scholarship Application found on page 11. To be considered for transfer student scholarships, you must attach (official or unofficial) copies of a transcript from all previously attended institutions.
